NOMINATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE

Nominations for the Woman of Achievement Award shall be submitted by PPAI's Board of Directors, committee members, Association members and Association staff (president, vice president and department directors with input from remaining staff who have frequent contact with members). The Association's Manager of Awards & Recognition will screen all nominations to eliminate ineligible candidates. Current members of the PPAI Woman of Achievement Advisory Group are not permitted to be nominated or to make nominations.

The nominations will be forwarded to the Woman of Achievement Advisory Group who will select the slate of proposed award recipients to be presented to the Executive Committee for final approval. The Advisory Group may select up to a maximum of three award recipients each year. It is possible there may be some years when there will be no award winner.

This form is only to be used to help gather details and information about the person you'd like to nominate. All entries must be submitted online.
