

<http://rymaxinc.com/index.php/solutions/player-loyalty/> We are seeking a high-energy, self-motivated Casino Sales Support Associate within our Product Sales division...offering more than 15,000 trending product options from nearly 400 premium brands such as Apple, Google, Michael Kors, Swarovski and more!

As the leading player loyalty program provider in the gaming industry, Rymax provides solutions for over 50 million players. Each property's player loyalty program is custom designed to drive traffic and engage players to keep coming back.

We're currently seeking a full-time, Player Loyalty Sales Support Associate to work out of our Pine Brook, New Jersey headquarters. The ideal candidate is one who is professional, can work well in a fast-paced environment and can think outside the box. Excellent communication (written and verbal) and time management skills are crucial for this position.

This department really needs someone who has a desire to both work and learn. Enthusiasm and being a team player is also ideal.

Job Description: Acts as a liaison between the sales team and all internal departments to obtain, process, and fulfill orders.

Responsibilities: Handles inside sales calls Processes, checks, and distributes purchase orders Supports outside salesmen Completes Vendor Registration Paperwork for new clients Classifies and distributes sales leads Tracks and follows up on existing/pre-existing orders Follow up with the client on all orders Creates merchandise spreadsheets Quotes pricing to customers Coordinates with IT to provide customized websites Forwards customer spec sheets, images, copy, and catalogs Handles credit applications and follows up on credit limits and overdue payments Travels and works events with Rymax/Brainstorm

Note: this role calls for significant travel throughout the year!

Rymax Marketing is an Equal Opportunity Employer