

Industry Leading Decorated Apparel company seeking an experienced, motivated, dependable full-time graphic artist to join creative team within our Promotional Product division. As Graphic Designer, you will execute customer virtual mock-ups upon request, conceive, present & design well-merchandised product collections and develop new design & embellishment concepts for photoshoot & show samples. You will report to the Creative Director and National Sales Manager to support companies' evolving embellishment techniques and products. The ideal candidate will have:

- A solid portfolio showcasing core graphic design principles (typography, vector art design, color theory, etc.).
- 2-4 years of professional design experience.
- Bachelor's degree in Graphic Design (or equivalent work experience).
- The ability to effectively communicate.
- Expertise in Adobe Creative Suite.
- Extensive experience in VECTOR art creation.
- The ability to think critically + solve problems with concrete direction – on the flipside, the ability to design with vague or little direction.
- A drive to provide innovative design solutions that meet clients' branding requirements and appeal to their intended end users.
- Strong organizational, planning, and time-management skills, with a proven capacity to prioritize and perform time-sensitive tasks.
- A positive, can-do attitude with an interest in learning the overall business.
- Self-motivation to generate ideas for projects independently and collaboratively.
- Domestic travel required for trade shows (1-2x per year) and key presentations (2-3x per year).
- Long Island-based.
