Job Description –

Work from your home office as a customer service rep for a family-friendly, growing, and fun promotional products company. Enjoy assisting our very busy sales team by providing a superior order experience. As a key player on our team, you will use our award-winning technology to manage orders efficiently. Our CSRs develop strong relationships with our suppliers to help ensure that our clients' orders meet or exceed their expectations.

You will love taking on different tasks every day and helping clients build their brand with promo products. You must have prior promo products experience, a laser sharp eye for detail, and written and communication skills that would make your high school English teachers proud! Bright Ideas is a 23-year-old distributor based out of Charlottesville, VA, named a Best Places to Work 7 Counselor Magazine seven years in a row.
