

Hey SALES PROFESSIONALS! Custom Source Marketing is a Woman-Owned company with 25 years of experience in the Promotional Industry creating innovative and custom manufactured branded merchandise for medium and large clients, and we are ON THE GROW!!

Looking for a fun, creative, motivated, relationship-focused Sales Professional who has significant sales experience (preferably distributor) to join our team. We are not looking for the average salesperson, but someone who wants to be part of an exciting growth journey with a team-focused company where each person “lives” their talent, embraces new opportunities, enjoys relationships and having fun, and is serious about a career where they can achieve their personal and financial goals.

Individual must have extensive product and branding knowledge, be skilled at managing and growing medium to large Corporate accounts in different industries (current house accounts) and possess a strong ability to identify and develop new business with and without provided leads.

This is a remote W2 or 1099 position, with access to a northwest NJ office. We offer a competitive salary +commission/bonus compensation package, based on experience. For individuals who prefer a 1099 position, we offer many of the same employee benefits along with full sales support and targeted marketing and lead generation to help you achieve any level of success.

Join Our Team! Immediate opening. Please send resume to rblewitt@customsourcemkg.com. All information will be kept strictly confidential.
